

STAKEHOLDER WORKSHOPS INSIDE THE TWO GERMAN CSAs BAVARIA BRANDENBURG

Nataly Juerges, UGOE

Max Krott, UGOE

Peter Biber, TUM

Werner Poschenrieder, TUM

Fabian Schwaiger, TUM

Marcus Kühling, GFA

Porto

12/06/2018

Who are the stakeholders helping to organize the workshop?

Bavaria: CSA Augsburg Western Forests

- Regional Department of Food Agriculture and Forestry Augsburg (AELF)
- German Forestry Association (DFV)

Brandenburg: CSA Lieberose-Schlaubetal-Neuzelle

- Brandenburg Ministry for Rural Development Environment and Agriculture (MLUL)
- State Forest Service Brandenburg
- Eberswalde Forestry State Center of Excellence (LFE)
- German Forestry Association (DFV)

How do the aFMMS link to the interests of these stakeholders?

- Engaged stakeholders are interested in providing relevant information within forest policy processes
- Presented aFMMS link to ongoing forest policy conflicts about forest management in the CSAs

What power resources do these stakeholders have to push the application of ALTERFOR research results through in practice?

Engaged stakeholder	Power resources
Regional Department of Food Agriculture and Forestry Augsburg (AELF)	Provider of (dominant) information (e.g. extension service for private forest owners, website, public relations work, responsibilities of public administration: monitoring activities, contact persons for financial support of forest owners)
German Forestry Association (DFV)	Provides information about forest use and management (e.g. Journal: ProWald, bi-annual meetings, participation in lobbying processes at national and sub-national levels)
Brandenburg Ministry for Rural Development, Environment and Agriculture (MLUL)	Provider of (dominant) information (e.g. website, public relations) & executive body for state forest policy
State Forest Service Brandenburg	Provider of (dominant) information about forests in the CSA, management of State forests
Eberswalde Forestry State Center of Excellence (LFE)	Provider of (dominant) information (e.g. annual science-practice events, annual reports)

Where and when is the workshop taking place?

Bavaria

- Forestry Workshop: 18th of October 2018
- Nature Conservation Workshop: 24th of October 2018
- Both workshops are taking place in a guesthouse in the CSA

Brandenburg

- First half of October 2018 (→ to be specified 20th of June)

Who is going to participate?

Bavaria

- Forestry Workshop: 12 experts from forestry sector
- Nature Conservation Workshop: 12 experts from nature conservation

Brandenburg

- Nature conservation and forestry experts
- Representatives of engaged stakeholders

How do you ensure target-group oriented communication with the participants?

- Pre-selection of results together with engaged stakeholders
- Preparation together with engaged stakeholders to ensure adequate level of complexity and language